

WITNESS OPPORTUNITIES

Personal Invitational Evangelism

God calls us and invites us to witness to our faith within the context of our daily lives. With that in mind, please take a few minutes to answer the following questions:

1. Identify 3 persons you know personally who would benefit from:

a. The ministries of your congregation

---

---

---

b. Having a closer walk with Jesus

---

---

---

c. Being involved in a Christian community

---

---

---

2. From the perspective of the people you know:

a. What are their needs, wants and/or desires as to how life can be more meaningful?

b. How might their lives be enriched by the ministries of your congregation and/or by you?

c. How might you and/or your congregation be a blessing to them?

Witness Opportunities

3. What kind of opportunities do you see in their life that their needs, wants, and/or desires can be met in ways that would make life more meaningful for them?

4. Who is the best person to extend the invitation to those whom you have identified in Question #1, so that they might be receptive to accepting the invitation extended to them?

a. Do you already have a positive, nurturing relationship with them?

___ Yes                      ___ No                      ___ Not Sure

b. Is there someone else that they know with whom they have a positive relationship?

Write down that person's name here:

_____

c. Is the person with whom they already have a relationship willing to extend an invitation to them?

___ Yes                      ___ No                      ___ Not Sure

If not, who would be willing to extend that invitation? Write down that person's name below:

_____

5. What are the "right moments" when people tend to be more receptive to accepting an invitation to enrich their lives?

a. Life passages: birth of a child; baptism; child beginning school; confirmation; child leaving home; college; marriage; etc.

b. Life crises: illness; death; divorce; recovery; change in employment; re-location; retirement; caring for an aging parent; etc.

c. When are those times in people's lives when they are looking for love, support, and encouragement?

6. Who do you know whom you might enlist to help support you and/or your congregation in its ministry of witness? Write down their names here:

_____